

K-TAP Eligibility

An Applicant Must:

have a low or very low income

be pregnant or responsible for a child under 19 years of age

be under-employed (working for very low wages), unemployed, or about to become unemployed be a U.S. citizen, legal alien, or permanent resident

Income and Resources Limits

Information is available on income and resources limits:

Family Members	Monthly Gross Income Limits	Maximum Payment Amounts
1	$742	$186
2	$851	$225
3	$974	$262
4	$1,096	$328
5	$1,218	$383
6	$1,340	$432
7	$1,462	$482

Application

You can check online to determine if you may be eligible for this benefit at www.benefits.gov/benefit/613. There is also information on the program, eligibility requirements, application process, and contact information. A family may apply for K-TAP and other assistance programs by visiting the local Department for Community Based Services (DCBS) office in the family's county of residence. To apply, you will need:

checking & savings account statements

social security card for each household member household verification

proof of residency, like a driver's license birth certificate of all household members (unless born in Kentucky)

proof of income

A family can receive K-TAP benefits for 60 months (five years) in a lifetime. For example, a family may receive K-TAP benefits for 24 months, stop, and later receive 36 more months of benefits.

For information, contact the Division of Family Support in Frankfort, Kentucky by calling (502) 564-7050.